Violence on TV is getting out of hand. There are things I don't even want to watch, much less my children. My 5 year old stepson talks way too much about blood, shooting, killing, etc. He is always mimicking the bad behavior he sees on TV, acting like he is killing, choking, shooting, or strangling others or himself. He thinks it's "cool". Shame on you for allowing TV to get so bad.